

Bendigo Financial Planning Wealth Concierge

Financial Services Guide

1 September 2024

Introduction

Bendigo Financial Planning (BFP) is required to provide you with this Financial Services Guide (FSG). It is designed to help you understand the important features of the general financial advisory services provided by the Wealth Concierge team, and to assist you in deciding whether to use any of these services.

General advice is broad in nature and it does not consider your financial situation, objectives and needs. General advice may assist you to understand information regarding a financial product or service, its features, benefits, drawbacks, risks and any eligibility requirements.

This FSG is designed to provide you with a clear understanding of what you can expect as a customer of Bendigo Financial Planning.

This guide outlines:

- The financial services we* offer
- The financial benefits that may be received by Bendigo Financial Planning and related persons in connection with the financial services provided
- Any interests, associations or relationships that could influence the general advice we give you
- Our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them.

* Throughout this Financial Services Guide, Bendigo Financial Planning Limited is referred to as "BFP", "we", "us", "our" or any such variations.

About Bendigo Financial Planning Limited

Bendigo Financial Planning Limited (ABN 81 087 585 073), is part of Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Limited (the Bank) and the Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Group (the Group). Our Australian Financial Services licence number is 237898.

With a national reach, our Wealth Concierge team help guide our customers to the right financial solution.

Who is responsible for the advice I receive?

Bendigo Financial Planning, as the holder of an Australian Financial Services licence, is responsible for the general advice provided to you. The Wealth Concierge designated staff as representatives of BFP act on behalf of Bendigo Financial Planning.

Our service

We are committed to providing an expert Wealth Concierge team to provide general financial advice to our customers, their families and their businesses. Our Wealth Concierge team members are qualified to provide general advice on a range of wealth products and services, which may be offered or distributed by the Group:

- Investment
- Superannuation
- Risk management (Personal insurance), and
- Retirement planning

Will the advice be tailored to my personal needs?

No, a Wealth Concierge is able to provide general advice only, which will not take into account your personal financial situation, objectives and needs. As general advice will not be specific to your personal circumstances, you will need to consider if the general advice provided is suitable for your investment objectives, financial circumstances and needs before you take any action.

If the general advice relates to acquiring or possibly acquiring a particular financial product, you should obtain and consider the relevant Product Disclosure Statement before making any decision to acquire the product.

If you require advice which is tailored to your personal needs and specific circumstances, your Wealth Concierge can help you arrange a meeting with our financial planning partner, Bridges Financial Services Pty Ltd ABN 60 003 474 977 (Bridges) for you to discuss your personal financial circumstances and financial planning advice needs. Bridges holds their own Australian Financial Services licence (AFSL) No. 240837.

If you elect to receive personal financial advice via Bridges, you should read a separate FSG from Bridges who is responsible for their advice.

Does Bendigo Financial Planning have any relationships or associations that may affect the advice given to me?

The general advice given to you is done so by Bendigo Financial Planning through our Wealth Concierge team. For personal financial advice, the Bank has entered into a referrer relationship with Bridges for the provision of personal financial planning services to customers of the Group.

The Bank will be entitled to receive a fee from Bridges for referral of clients who receive personal financial advice. The details of the fee will be disclosed to you in a Statement of Advice (SOA). As at the date of this FSG, the fee paid from Bridges to the Bank is $1,150 plus GST for each referred client that is issued personal advice from Bridges.

Bridges holds an AFS licence and Bridges financial planners are required to act in your best interests when providing personal advice to you and to explain the risks associated with the investments or strategies recommended to you.

The Bank or BFP is not responsible for any services or advice provided by Bridges, their employees or representatives. Bridges is not part of the Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Group. Please review any documents provided to you by Bridges to understand how Bridges will provide personal financial advice to you.

How are Wealth Concierges remunerated?

Wealth Concierge staff are salaried employees of the Bank and are not remunerated via commission. Wealth Concierge staff may be eligible for the Group's Performance Bonus Scheme however these bonus payments are not an additional cost to you. Bonuses, if applicable are based on the satisfactory performance of all activities across the entire business.

Wealth Concierge Fees

There is no charge for the consultation with the Wealth Concierge.

If our Wealth Concierge refers you to Bridges for personal advice, fees relating to personal advice will apply, and are required to be set out in Bridges' regulated documents. BFP is not responsible for Bridges' fees or for any services provided by Bridges.

Remuneration received by other Group companies for products issued by them

If you acquire a product issued by a company in the Group, the relevant company may receive product fees in relation to that product, including commissions, referral fees, entry fees, management fees, exit fees or any other fees specified in the PDS or the disclosure document for that particular product. These product fees may benefit other Group members or associates.

If a Community Bank Branch or an Agency of the Bank refers you to us and you decide to progress with personal financial advice through a secondary referral by us to Bridges, the Branch/Agency will receive a referral fee of $460 plus GST. Any amounts paid to Community Bank Branches or Bendigo Bank Agencies will be debited from the $1,150 plus GST paid to the Bank by Bridges and will not be an extra charge to you.

Does Bendigo Financial Planning have any associations that may influence the advice I receive?

Bendigo Financial Planning is a subsidiary of Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Limited.

The Group comprises a number of wholly owned subsidiaries including Sandhurst Trustees Limited, and Leveraged Equities Limited. These subsidiaries provide products and services which may be discussed during your general advice discussion.

Wealth Concierge is a complimentary service offered by the Bendigo Bank. Should you decide to purchase a product after a discussion with the Wealth Concierge, no commissions or bonuses will be paid to the team member.
