Make the most of your investment

▶ The power of compounding

Compounding can be a powerful tool in wealth creation. Reinvesting distributions can be one of the easiest and cheapest ways to increase your holdings over time. You're compounding your investment's growth by continually adding more units which, in turn, will generate distributions of their own.

Why not reinvest your half yearly distributions?

► The benefits of making it regular

Making regular contributions to your investment can both grow your investment and smooth the effects of market highs and lows. Why not add a Regular Savings Plan to your investment? Establish one from as little as $50 per month.

You can also use BPAY® to add to your investment at any time with as little as $100. See your statement for your BPAY reference number.

Sharemarket commentary⁵

- ► Global sharemarkets had a volatile year with losses from the COVID correction erased by the ensuing strong rally
- ► In an unpredictable year, the Fund's ex-50 benchmark was stronger than the broader market gaining +14.5%

The year 2020 was one of the most unpredictable on record for global sharemarkets. The MSCI World Index gained +14% for the year, as it rallied sharply post the correction which occurred across most markets in March as COVID-19 was declared a global pandemic and governments around the world imposed travel bans and shutdowns across many sectors of their economies. To counter the fallout from the pandemic, most central banks around the world cut rates to record lows while also embarking on huge quantitative easing and other measures to ensure their banking systems held up in the face of the enormous economic fallout and closure of many parts of the economy. Most governments around the world also embarked on massive fiscal programmes designed to cushion their economies from the impact of the shutdowns

Global sharemarkets finished 2020 with a strong final quarter as the MSCI World Index added +13%, buoyed by the US Presidential election results and the rollout of COVID-19 vaccines as well as a resolution to the UK's trade deal with the EU. Like other sharemarkets around the world, the Australian sharemarket had a highly volatile year. After falling heavily during March as COVID-19 enforced lockdowns and travel bans severely affected various parts of the economy, huge Government programmes and stimulus as well as RBA measures through the lowering of interest rates to a record low 0.1% and significant quantitative easing helped the local market recover, with the S&P/ASX300 Accumulation Index ending the year up +1.7%.

The Fund's ex-50 benchmark continued its strong recovery over the final quarter of calendar year 2020, rallying +15.7% as all sectors finished in positive territory.

Portfolio performance & summary⁵

▶ IML continue to use volatility to top up in good quality companies they believe can do well over the next 3-5 years

The Fund recorded a disappointing result for calendar year 2020, recording a total return of -4.2%, well below the benchmark's strong return of +14.5% which was buoyed by the ex-50 Resources and Tech sectors. A number of companies held in the portfolio were significantly impacted as a result of national and state-based COVID-19 lockdowns throughout the year which directly affected profitability and thus these companies' share prices. The Fund's very low weighting to the higher risk Resources and IT sectors also impacted the Fund's relative performance. Over the year many of the core holdings in well managed, good quality industrial companies such as Metcash, Pro-Pac and Nine Entertainment did well.

Outlook⁵

While sharemarkets around the world recovered strongly as the year progressed thanks to central bank and government actions as well as optimism for an improved economic outlook in 2021, many companies' profitability and dividends continue to be impacted by the economic turmoil. In light of the mixed economic outlook going forward, IML continue to focus on good quality companies that they believe represent good value and which they believe can do well over the next 3 to 5 years.
