

Community Investment Application

What you need to know about applying for sponsorship

- Please read the Community Investment Guidelines before commencing your application
- The Board of Balnarring & District Community Services Limited is responsible for assessing and approving all applications.
- Applications above $8000 may require additional information and a face-to-face meeting.
- Successful applicants are entering into a mutually beneficial relationship where promotion of our Community Bank is expected.
- For applications to be successful, your organisation should be an existing customer, be an incorporated body, have Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) status or be a community not for profit organisation.

Please attach any additional information you believe might help with your application.
