The Kalbar & District
Community Bank® Branch has been welcomed by our community and despite facing a very challenging 12 months, is performing ahead of budget.

The show goes on with a bright future

Kalbar & District Community Bank®
Branch was the major sponsor of Kalbar Show Society by donating $1,000 as well as a further $500
which was utilised in providing trophy items for many sections within the show. The Kalbar Show Society's new executive team was very pleased with the attendance numbers at the 2011 show.

The donations flooded in at the bush dance

Harrisville and Warrill View P&C's got together to hold a bush dance to raise funds for the flood affected schools of Brassall and Bundamba. The community banded together along with the support of the Kalbar & District Community Bank[®] Branch and raised a total amount of $1,443.40 which was passed on to the schools that had sustained losses during the January flooding.

Supporting our Bombers

Kalbar & District Community Bank[®] Branch pledged their support to the Fassifern Bombers Rugby

League Club, with a donation to assist the club for their 2011 season.

We are proud to be associated with the Bombers and look forward to a continuing relationship with the largest local Rugby League Club.

Kalbar country day

The annual Kalbar Country Day Hay Sculpture Competition was very well supported, with over 20 entries nominated within the district.

The judges had the difficult task of choosing the winning entry, based on creativity and originality. The eventual winner was presented with a cheque from the Kalbar & District Community Bank[®] Branch in the amount of $500.

Helping seriously ill kids

Kalbar & District Community Bank[®] Branch has partnered with the Rosevale Rural Fire Brigade to support the Brats Variety Bash, an event organised by children's charity, Variety Queensland. More than 40 decorated cars and trucks filled with participants and excited children stopped in the small town of Rosevale for morning tea and to rest before the rest of the journey.

Under 8's day

Piggy enjoyed the under 8's day held at the Kalbar School with many primary schools in the surrounding area present. With the day being packed full of activities for the kids and even some adults, like face painting, ball games and a gymnastic display.

We are proud of our staff. Come and meet them.

We value our customers. Come and join them.

We have great products and services.

Come and try them.
