

Branch Manager's report.

I've said it before and I'll say it again, "Logan Country Financial Services Limited is proud to be a locally owned and operated Logan business." Our staff and Directors live locally and we trade in the Logan Country area. We opened a full service branch in Logan Village in 2006 and we are nurturing our agency and banking service centre to bring a full service branch to the people of Jimboomba.

With more than $250,000 and countless volunteer hours returned to our community already, we can say hand on heart that our sponsorships, grants and in-kind assistance over the past nine years have made a real and tangible difference in the lives of Logan Country people. Just ask the many local service clubs, churches, schools and sporting organisations we've supported.

Entering into the new financial year, it is business as usual. My goal for the coming 12 months is to continue the great work we have been doing in Logan Village and surrounding areas and to further expand our footprint in the Jimboomba area. I'm often asked when we will convert to a full branch in Jimboomba and the answer is simple, the community needs to support us, so we in turn can support the community. We've come a long way already, but we need you to bring your banking to us. With a significant portion of our profits being distributed back into our community each year, banking with us is in everybody's best interests.

If you'd like to discuss your banking needs or find out more about what we do, please contact me or a member of my team in Logan Village (phone: 5546 3840) or at our Banking Service Centre in Jimboomba (phone: 5548 7220).

Chairman's update.

Logan Country Financial Services Limited continues to grow despite uncertainties in broader financial markets.

Our Directors and staff have been working hard to develop our company, expand our income, improve our brand recognition and solidify our reputation as a banking organisation that sincerely feeds into the prosperity of our community.

Our "one team, one vision" approach to expanding our business has allowed us to continue to meet shareholder expectations whilst exploring opportunities throughout Logan Country.

We continue to work toward opening a full branch in Jimboomba.

Kerry and the branch team have rolled out the welcome mat to homeowners and local businesses inviting the community to experience first-hand the Bendigo difference.

Together we continue to foster worthwhile community partnerships which contribute to the growth, strength and resilience of our community.

This year's Hope sponsorship of Jimboomba's Relay for life is of particular significance given Lesley's battle with cancer. We wish Lesley well as she continues her recovery.

The Board, branch and agency team will be out in force on 10 and 11 October to show our support to Lesley and the one in two Queenslanders who will develop cancer in their lifetimes.

Speaking of the Cancer Council, it is with a heavy heart we farewell our Corporate Manager and Company Secretary Shaelene Hancock. Shaelene will be leaving us at the end of July to take up a full time position at the Cancer Council in Brisbane.

On behalf of the Board, Branch Manager, our staff and agency I would like to formally thank Shaelene for the tremendous contribution she has made to our business. Over the past four years Shaelene has contributed enormously to the professionalism of our organisation and has become a trusted and respected member of not only our team, but the entire community.

We all wish Shaelene every success in her future endeavours.

Finally, I'd like to thank you, Logan Country, for your support as we strive to grow our business and share the benefits of the Community Bank[®] model.

All the fun of the fair.

A free family fun day at My Home and the River in Logan Village drew crowds from near and far to celebrate the opening of the estate's playground.

Families were treated to classic vehicle displays, a petting zoo, face painting, amusements and an assortment of static displays.

The Logan Country Community Bank[®] branch army were out in force to support the Logan Village Lions Club in feeding the masses.

"It's a backyard barbie on a grand scale," said project co-developer Geoff Kerkow.

Lion's Shaarni Wigg and Director Allan Pettigrew.

Chair Paul Casbolt, Vice Chair Laurie Koranski and Station Manager Radio Logan 101FM Terry Blacker.

The gift of reading.

Branch team member Romayne Farrer.

The Community Bank[®] branch's Romayne Farrer is a passionate advocate for Quota's QuoCKa reading program at Flagstone State School.

The QuoCKa (Quota, Cops 'N' Kids) program helps students to improve their literacy skills and encourages a love of reading.

"The rewards you get from reading are immense," Rom said.

"Just seeing the faces of those kids is so delightful."

The program relies upon volunteers giving their time to read with the children and the local community for donations.

"Initially kids were very shy and behind in their literacy," Rom said.

"Now their teachers are saying there is a vast improvement in children in those year levels."

"The kids love it and are just so excited to have someone read with them a story," she said.

Lyon to lead Lions.

The Lions Club of Logan Village welcomed Eleanor Lyon as president at the club's annual change over dinner at the Logan Village Community Hall.

The Community Bank[®] branch has been long time sponsors and friends of the Lions Club, with Directors Gary Hastings and Laurie Koranski joining in the celebrations.

Eleanor publicly congratulated and thanked the outgoing committee and extended a warm welcome to the incoming team.

"I feel I have been afforded a great honour to be the Logan Village Lions next President," she said.

"I have been impressed by the dedication of all our members and their hard work to make us able to support so many worthy causes."

"We have seen the successful establishment of the Men's Shed and I hope we can do something for the ladies."

"Most women I know have their own special interest groups, so I am open to ideas ... to enhance the lives of women in our community," Eleanor said.

Incoming President Eleanor Lyon being congratulated by Director Gary Hastings.

Farewell Shaelene.

Corporate Manager and Company Secretary Shaelene Hancock.

Corporate Manager and Company Secretary Shaelene Hancock is leaving the Logan Country Community Bank[®] Branch to take up a position at Cancer Council Queensland.

Following a four year stint working with Community Bank[®] company shareholders and supporting Board and branch staff, the popular and vivacious wife and mother of two is looking to spread her wings in the not-for-profit sector.

"Leaving the branch has been a very hard decision as I've absolutely loved my role and work with such terrific people," Shaelene said.

"I love the support I've received from our Board of Directors and really admire their commitment to the successful running of our company, particularly as they are all volunteers."

"Our branch and the whole Bendigo Bank team are fantastic and of course having the opportunity to meet so many wonderful people in our community is one of the things I'll miss the most," Shaelene said.

Shaelene lists several highlights over the past four years including participating in Jimboomba's Relay for Life, supporting the House With No Steps in developing a sensory garden and utilising the extensive Bank network to develop various community projects across Logan Country.

"An achievement I'm extremely proud of is our involvement with the Logan Village Country Music Festival which commenced with the Logan Village Settlers Day event in 2013," Shaelene said.

"Being part of the Organising Committee has been fantastic as it has included members of our Board, staff and of course our fantastic community, all working together to see the success of the Festival."

Relaying for Lesley.

Lesley with her husband Mick Wood.

The Logan Country Community Bank[®] Branch, will once again participate in the Jimboomba Relay for Life at Hills College in October.

The Annual Hope Sponsors have an extra special reason to Relay this year with the branch's beloved Lesley Wood having completed a round of chemotherapy to treat recurrent cancer.

"I have now finished the treatment and I am currently using a new drug that has just been released from trials," Lesley said.

"I continued to work throughout my recent treatment and I think it was a great help to me to be able to continue working at Bendigo Bank, as the support they gave me was fantastic."

"They made the weekly treatment more tolerable and also accepted me wearing my funny hats to work," Lesley said.

Lesley was first diagnosed with breast cancer in 2003 and has bravely fought an on-again, off-again battle with the disease.

Lesley's first Relay for Life event was nine years ago when she took to the track during the opening ceremony.

"Relay is important to me as a place where Survivors and Carers can gather together in a friendly and active environment to show that there is life after a cancer diagnoses even though you may feel that your life may never be the same again," she said.

Regular Relay for Life team meetings are held in the Banking Service Centre in Jimboomba.

Scouts to Jamboree.

Dyb, dyb, dyb,
dob, dob, dob!

The Logan Village Scouts are certainly doing their best to raise $6,500 to send a contingent to Jamboree in Sydney in January 2016.

More than 12,000 Scouts from all over Australia will participate in two weeks of fun, adventure and friendships.

Earlier this year Logan Country Community Bank® Branch provided the troop with much needed seed funding.

"The branch donated $500 and supplied us with people to assist us at three sausage sizzles," said Scout leader Jason "Red Claw" Danbury.

"We have now raised over $4,500. The support from Logan Village Bendigo staff has been fantastic. Hopefully we will continue working together in future," Mr Danbury said.

The Scouts next sausage sizzle will be at Bunnings Holmview on 16 August.

Congratulations!

It has been a year since Branch Manager Kerry Menck joined Logan Country Community Bank® Branch.

Happy Anniversary Kerry!

Congratulations to Director Stacey McIntosh on being inducted as the President of the Rotary Club of Loganholme.
