

Chairman's report.

Hello and welcome to our Autumn Newsletter.

I am pleased to advise that our Board of Directors has recently expanded to 11. First with Emma Stonham and Catherine Walsh joining at our Annual General Meeting. In 2019, we have also welcomed Sarah Rajic and Adrienne Day and look forward to seeing their impact on the company.

We have been hard at work over the past six months creating a new strategic plan that will take our company through to December 2021. We are seeing major shifts in the banking industry already. Bendigo and Adelaide Bank has recently sold its financial planning book, and new bank branches such as Bendigo Bank Norwood no longer resemble a normal bank branch. Our Community Bank® branches will have to adapt to meet the challenge.

As with our 2016 plan, we will also brief our shareholders to keep them informed about how we plan to navigate the next few years, and how they can help. This briefing will occur at the 2019 Annual General Meeting in November.

We hope to see you there.

Neale Guthrie
Chair

Community update.

Jayson Hinder Memorial Scholarship.

We are pleased to announce that we have recently awarded the winner of the inaugural Jayson Hinder Memorial Scholarship. Kailey Jitts, a Canberra PCYC program member, plans to attain her Diploma in Applied Fashion & Textiles and eventually start her own business.

Menslink Big Night Out.

Chair Neale Guthrie speaking with Genevieve Jacobs of Region Media and Martin Fisk of Menslink about the Big Night Out. The night raised around $180,000 for Menslink, which will go towards providing free counselling, mentoring and education programs for young men in 2019.

Clare Holland House Cup.

In February, the ACT Veterans Rugby Club once again held their 'Clare Holland House Cup' Season opener. The funds raised this year from our sponsorship and donations on the day will provide two new pressure relieving mattresses which are essential in the daily care of Clare Holland House patients.
