Chair's report

Hello and welcome to our Summer Newsletter.

I took over the role of Chair from Neale Guthrie, after he stepped down at the end of 2020. As you may know, I have been a Director of Molonglo Financial Services Limited (MFSL) since 2011, and have been involved with the company prior to that through the Jerrabomberra Steering Committee. I am very much looking forward to meeting the challenges that lay ahead of us.

Following the Annual General Meeting in November, our company welcomed two new Directors; Alice Tay and Lisa Moore. Alice was previously a commercial lawyer, with experience on plenty of local Boards and Councils. Lisa was previously a consultant, specialising in change management. They will be welcome additions to our team.

In addition to our new Directors, we have also had some key personnel changes. Jacob Krog, who was acting as our Branch Manager at Calwell and Jerrabomberra, has been appointed Senior Branch Manager across our four branches. Caleb Te Moananui, our Wanniasa Branch Manager, has taken up a new role at the Bendigo Bank Jamison. We wish Caleb all the best. Good things lay ahead for all Bendigo Bank branches in the region this year.

I look forward to meeting shareholders and providing them with a face-to-face update in mid-2021.

Brian Brown
Chair

Thank you, Neale

After almost five years as Chair of MFSL, Neale Guthrie has stepped down from his role. Neale lists highlights of his tenure as steering the company through the aftermath of the GFC and a rapidly changing banking landscape, managing through the COVID-19 pandemic, being the first Community Bank in the network to appoint mobile lenders and his appointment to the Community Bank National Council to advocate for communities around Australia.

Neale will remain on the Board until the middle of 2021 and plans to spend his retirement devoting more time to his grandchildren, travelling with his wife and working as a volunteer for a range of local charitable and philanthropic organisations.
