Community Bank · Rye & District, Rosebud and Dromana

We're here for you

Bendigo Bank's Rye, Rosebud and Dromana Community Banks have remained open throughout COVID-19. Our local team are working hard to ensure all hygiene and social distancing requirements are being met, all while continuing to offer friendly and professional customer service. We are so proud of how our staff are performing their roles as essential service workers. Our local Board are committed to supporting community groups, schools, clubs, businesses and our customers as we deal with the pandemic. When you choose to bank with us, you are supporting the incredible work these dedicated community groups are doing.

Delivering over $138,000 to the community

In the first of our two annual sponsorship and grant allocations, Rye, Rosebud and Dromana Community Banks have provided sponsorships and grants to over 50 local community groups to a total of $138, 230. The focus now is to help those who are most vulnerable and directly affected by the impacts of COVID-19.

In this unusual and difficult time, the Board of our Community Banks also recognise that many groups are struggling in extenuating circumstances, with events cancelled or postponed, and sporting seasons uncertain. As all groups play a vital role in contributing to a thriving community, the Board wants to ensure that all groups can continue to function where possible, or to get started again quickly once it is safe to do so.

Chairman Vin Cheers said, "Your Community Bank has always supported local people and the sporting teams, local groups and businesses that are at the heart of our community. We want to thank you for your support over the years. We know now, more than ever, we need to work together to ensure the community continues to thrive through and beyond this crisis. And as we have always been, we are there for you."

We're here for you

The next round of sponsorship and grant applications opened 1 July 2020. See your branch or website for details.

$30,000 For Southern Peninsula Community Support Food Relief

Rye, Rosebud and Dromana Bendigo Community Banks have provided a grant of $30,000 for Southern Peninsula Community Support to assist with their Food Relief program. Southern Peninsula Community Support (you may know them as SPCSIC), are celebrating their 40th anniversary this year. They are committed to helping people across the local region who are experiencing financial difficulties. As the safety net for the Southern Peninsula, the centre catches those who might otherwise fall through the gaps. Their free, confidential and independent support is provided in a welcoming and non-judgmental environment. Their services include emergency relief and crisis support, case management, advocacy and connection to specialist services.

Every year they support thousands of people across the Southern Peninsula, and to do this they rely heavily on community partners, donations and the hard work of volunteers.

CEO Jeremy Maxwell says, "Even though we have been providing essential help to local people here on the Southern Peninsula for decades, there are still many people who don't know who we are or what we do. Tackling these problems requires a whole community effort, so it is really important that we get our message out there and let the community know what we are doing. Hopefully even more people can get involved by dropping off food supplies at a Bendigo Bank branch, volunteering or making a charitable donation. Every little bit counts and together we can help those most vulnerable in our own communities."

The Food Relief program provides fresh fruit and vegetables to be collected from Rosebud Memorial Hall on a Monday morning, or deliveries can be arranged for those who are vulnerable or isolated. With many households being affected by job or income loss, the need to ensure everyone has food on the table has never been greater.

Keeping in touch with our communities

In these strange times of lock-down and social distancing, many of us have felt that keeping connected with people in our communities has become unusually difficult. For some, this means real isolation and loneliness. Fortunately, we are lucky enough to have many groups already poised to help us keep connected and share stories. The Board recognise that now, when people are unable to meet and gather as they normally would have, the need for printed communication is greater than ever. We are delighted to maintain support of the following publications.

And of course, we have this newsletter coming now coming to you quarterly, as well as regular updates on our website. We always aim to be there for you, so if you need help or advice, please just reach out. Pick up the phone and give us a call at any of our Community Banks, or if you do need to visit us, know we remain open and are stringently adhering to hygiene requirements to keep you safe.

Rosebud Police Senior Citizens Register (RPSCR) - $5,000

RPSCR communicates with its entire client base three times a year via four page newsletters. This newsletter is a vital form of communication for many isolated and elderly people. It was introduced in 1995 when the census revealed there were in excess of 10,500 local residents aged over 60. That number has increased significantly since then.

The register aims to make older citizens feel safer, to have contact they need and to eradicate abuse of the elderly, amongst other things. RPSCR is supported by police but run by a dedicated group of volunteers.

$8,000 for Boneo CFA vital upgrades

It's been six months since our devastating bush fire season, but we haven't forgotten!

More than $13 million raised through the Bendigo Bank bushfire appeal has been distributed to provide immediate relief to fire affected families.

Locally, Rye, Rosebud and Dromana Community Banks are also making a difference. In this latest round of sponsorships and grants, Boneo Fire brigade was awarded $8,000. Boneo Fire Brigade has been serving the community, not just Boneo, but the whole of Victoria and beyond since 1942. As a volunteer group, they would not be able to continue to provide this service without the generous support from the public and local organisations.

The brigade currently has three appliances:

- Tanker 1 is a CFA owned fire truck, carrying 3,000 litres of water along with more tools and equipment than most people have in their garage
- Tanker 2 is a brigade owned and funded fire truck. It carries 1,300 litres of water and a small number of tools, such as a chainsaw, a few hand tools and of course hose and nozzles
- The FCV (Forward Command Vehicle) is a twin cab ute. This vehicle can be used as a command post at fires and car accidents or to transport additional crew and equipment when required. It is fitted with a message board to warn oncoming traffic of hazards. It is also used to tow our community engagement and educational trailer to events like the Boneo Market, Bunnings Days or Boneo Park.

Tanker 2, Boneo FCV and the trailer, along with all the equipment on them, have all been purchased with the help and sponsorship from the Bendigo Bank. Boneo CFA are now looking at building a new motor room on the station, to better house their fire-fighting vehicles and make the station a safer place for their completely volunteer work force. Planning is well underway and with ongoing support from Bendigo Bank and the community, they hope to see this station addition in the not too distant future.

The Brigade members shared, "We would like to thank the team at Bendigo Bank for their support over many years. It has helped us immensely to create a safer work-place for our volunteers and protect the lives and property in our community."

If you are interested in volunteering with Boneo Fire Brigade please email: secretary@boneocfa.org.au
