

Rural and Community Event

Treasury Update | Ag Answers Insights | Succession Planning

The team from Rural Bank and the Tumby Bay Community Bank® Branch invite you and a guest to a morning tea with special guests Rudy Boeff, sharing insights from Treasury, Jonathan Creese, providing an overview on the current research findings from Ag Answers, and Erin Moll, discussing the importance of succession planning for a farm business.

Rudy Boeff

Rudy joined Rural Bank as Treasury and Funding Manager in February 2004. He came to the bank with nearly 20 years of financial market experience, predominantly gained in retail financial institutions. Before joining Rural Bank, Rudy spent more than 15 years with Adelaide Bank and its predecessors Hindmarsh Adelaide and Co-op Building Societies, predominantly in the Treasury area. Rudy holds a Bachelor of Economics from Flinders University, is a Fellow of the Finance and Treasury Association and a Fellow of the Financial Services Institute of Australia.

Rudy Boeff
Treasurer

Jonathan Creese

Jonathan leads Ag Answers, the Bank's agribusiness research and analysis team. Jonathan holds a Bachelor of Agricultural Science from La Trobe University and a Master of Social Science from the University of Melbourne.

He has been studying trends in Victorian agriculture for eight years initially with Government before joining Rural Finance in 2011.

Jonathan Creese
Manager Ag Answers

Erin Moll

Erin Moll is a lawyer at Mellor Olsson based in the Port Lincoln office. Erin graduated in 2010 from the University of Adelaide with a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Economics. After graduating, Erin worked for a regional law firm in the Barossa Valley where she developed a keen interest in estate planning and property law. At the end of 2010, Erin took up a position in Adelaide with a prominent law firm, practising in their corporate team and specialising in the areas of competition law, intellectual property, technology, franchising and consumer law.

Erin practices in general commercial law, wills and estates, succession planning and property law. Erin has been a member of the Eyre Peninsula Young Tradespeople and Professionals since 2012, former Secretary in 2013 and Vice President in 2014. She is currently a member of the Law Society of South Australia.

Erin Moll
Lawyer

Date	Friday 19 February
Time	10am – 12pm
Venue	Ungarra Complex, Moody Centre Road, Ungarra
RSVP	by Friday 12 February to tumbybaymailbox@bendigoadelaide.com.au or by phone 8688 2046

Please advise of any dietary requirements.

(S54225) (01/16)